What This Course is About

"Organizing," writes author Si Kahn, "is people working together to get things done."

This course focuses primarily on community organizing efforts by people working together to improve their neighborhoods, communities, workplaces, and cities.

Community organizing can focus on a wide variety of issues - housing, the environment, public safety, public health and health care, child care, jobs, poverty, discrimination, and many others. We will also focus on union organizing as a complement to community organizing.

The purpose of the course is to help prepare you to be effective leaders. Some of you may want to become professional organizers, but all of you are (and will continue to be) citizens in some community. If you want to be an effective, active citizen who can make a difference in your community, you will need to use the tools of leadership and organization-building.

The course examines the history of community organizing in the United States. It explores the different theories and approaches to effective grassroots organizing. It emphasizes the skills and techniques used to empower people so they can win victories and improve their communities.

The course is intended to be a small, participatory seminar. Active student participation is critical to its success. The course involves five ways of learning:

1. An intensive 12-hour/week internship with an organization engaged in direct organizing and coalition building.
2. We will read several books and a number of articles about organizing, including several case studies, and discuss them in class.
3. We will watch several films (including documentaries) and discuss them in class.
4. We will talk with several guest speakers who have experience as effective organizers and activists.
5. We will participate in several hands-on exercises.

Course Requirements

➤ Internship.

You should already have picked one of these groups to work with during the entire term. You are expected to begin your internship the week of August 28 and work at least 10 hours/week through Tuesday, December 5, the last day of class. You will attend meetings and public events, work in the office, meet the staff and members, and undertake research that will help the organization achieve its goals. You will spend at least 12 hours a week working with a community organization in the L.A. area.

➤ Guest Speakers and Evening Films

We've invited several prominent activists, policymakers, and organizers to meet and talk with students for lunchtime discussions. On these days, the class discussion session will end at 11:00. Guest speakers will join us from 11-12:30. This is an important part and required part of the class. There will be four evening film screenings. These evening sessions will be held from 6:30 – 8:30; location TBD. A summary the evening meetings is listed at the end of the syllabus. I hope to have a list of speakers confirmed within two weeks of the start of the semester. Please plan your work and internship schedules accordingly.

➤ Written Assignments (a summary of the written assignments is included at the end of the syllabus)

1. Keep a journal. As part of this course, you should keep a journal. Your journal should record your internship activities. You should take notes on your observations, impressions, and questions about the people, the organization, the community, and issues you are dealing with. You should record your own activities -- including the highlights and challenges you observed or experienced. Your journals should be handwritten but depending on your handwriting, you may have to type up your notes. You will turn in your journals with your Final Paper (on December 12).

2. Complete an Organizational Profile of your internship organization. (Due Tuesday, November 7) Completing this assignment will require you to research and find out information about your organization. This information will be used for your final paper. Draw on newspaper articles and reports about your organization. You may have to ask your supervisor for information. Since some of the information may be sensitive organizational information, you may want to let your supervisor know that the information will be used only for classroom discussion and the professors will be the only ones reading your profiles. Your profile
- Provide a one-page summary of the organization's history, including the date of its founding, its evolution over time, any significant changes in its mission or structure.
  - If your organization has a Board of Directors, list the names of the people on the Board of the organization.
  - Profile the Board of Directors in terms of the following categories: (1) community residents, (2) staff, (3) funders and/or business, (4) allies, (5) attorneys, (6) other
  - Annual budget of the organization for each of the past three years. In cases where you might be interning with a union local of a chapter/local office of a statewide organization, you may have to determine local and higher level budgets.
  - % of budget devoted to community organizing
  - Number of full-time and part-time staff persons with responsibility for community organizing and advocacy Number of full-time and part-time staff persons in the whole organization
  - Sources of funding for the organization for each of the past three years, including dues, foundations, fundraisers, other. List the foundations.
  - List the issues that the community organizing staff have worked on in the past three years
  - Describe the group's key organizing campaigns over the past three years, using a narrative version of the Midwest Academy's strategy chart. Who are their key constituencies, targets, allies? What are their strategies and tactics? List the outcomes of their community organizing campaigns -- victories, defeats, stalemates.

3. Final Paper (due Tuesday, December 11 by 5:00 p.m.; no late papers accepted)
Each student in this course is required to write a short paper (15-20 pages) describing and analyzing your internship and the organization you worked with. The paper should draw on the class materials (readings, films, speakers, exercises) as well as your experiences and your journal and research done for your Organizational Profile. The paper should explain what you learned about community organizing, especially, the key elements of effective community organizing, and how well the organization met the criteria of effective organizing.

Your final paper should aim to be objective and analytical. That means you should view the organization from a variety of angles and perspectives -- not simply the perspective of your supervisor. You should look organization from the perspective of the staff, the board, constituents, allies, targets, and others. Then you can come to your own conclusion based on having an "outsider's" view of the organization

In order to write this paper, in other words, you will need to talk to people besides your intern supervisor. Your analysis of the organization's strengths and weaknesses should be based on the criteria we have discussed and read about in class. To help you think about these issues, we will put on the course website a chapter called "Getting to Know the Placement Site" from the book The Successful Internship: Transformation and Empowerment in Experiential Learning by H. Frederick Sweitzer and Mary A. King (third edition, Thompson-Brooks/Cole Publishers, 2009). Please read this chapter before you begin your internship.

The final paper should include an evaluation of the organization and of your internship. Topics should include (but aren't limited to) the following:

- The history of the organization. How it was started and by whom? Why was it started? What are the organization's missions and goals? How and why it has changed since its beginning?
- How is the organization organized? Discuss its budget, staff, board, and sources of funds. Who runs the organization? How does the way it is organized reflect its missions and goals? How does the way it is funded influence what it does and its ability to advance its mission and/or achieve its organizing goals
- How does the organization decide what issues to get involved with? What is the group's overall strategy? How does it decide on strategy and tactics?
- What is the organization's constituency? How does it determine what its constituency is?

- How does the organization deal with such matters as leadership, recruiting and maintaining members, maintaining morale, fundraising, research, and the media?
- What impact does involvement in the organization have on the people -- staff, leaders, members?
- Discuss how your internship fits into the organization's overall activities. Discuss the specific role(s) you play(ed) in the organization. Evaluate the pros and cons of your internship.
- Discuss the overall strengths and weaknesses of the organization. Be sure to clarify what criteria you are using.

Grades

For UEP 310, your grade will be based on three areas of work:

1. Participation in class (including lunch and dinner sessions) (33%). Students are expected to do the reading before class and actively participate in classroom discussions.
2. Class Exercises (33%). The course includes a series of exercises and assignments throughout the course that you are expected to participate in and, in the case of written exercises, turn in for credit. Completion of these will contribute to your participation in class. They are also key elements of your final paper (see below).
3. Internship Analysis (33%). This includes three assignments: 1) completion of your journal; 2) organizational profile of your internship organization; and, 3) final paper. See details above.

For UEP 311, your grade will be based on your Internship Analysis (see above) as well as an evaluation by your supervisor and our discussions with you about your internship.

Required Readings

Much of the course reading will be found in the books listed below. In addition, all readings with an asterisk (*) will be found on the Moodle site this course. I may occasionally add or switch readings if we think it is appropriate.

Students should also regularly bring to class articles from newspapers or magazines that relate to the topics discussed in the course.

You should purchase the following paperback books. They are for sale at the Oxy Bookstore.

- Kim Bobo, Jackie Kendall, and Steve Max, Organizing for Social Change: A Manual for Activists, 4th edition
- Mary Beth Rogers, Cold Anger: A Story of Faith and Power Politics
- Gabriel Thompson, Calling All Radicals

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism consists of any form of passing off, or attempting to pass off, the knowledge or work of others as your own. It is a form of cheating. Examples of plagiarism include: unattributed quotations from a book, magazine or article; copying from the notes or essays of others; the submission of work actually written or dictated by others; and unattributed use of other peoples' ideas. Remember, plagiarism includes information from books, newspapers, journals and the Internet.

Plagiarism is grounds for failing the course and possible expulsion from the college. Students should consult Occidental's student handbook for information on academic misconduct policy at the college: <http://www.oxy.edu/student-handbook/academic-ethics/academic-misconduct>.

Laptops and Cellphones

- Cell phones and all other electronic devices are to be turned off or put on silent. Additionally, they are to be put away to avoid distraction.
- Laptops are allowed to be used only for taking notes and for related classroom assignments.

Recommended Readings

The following books are recommended for basic reference:

Saul Alinsky, Rules for Radicals and Reveille for Radicals. Alinsky was the "father" of community organizing, starting in the 1940s. These two books are the "bibles" of organizing -- the lessons he learned from his decades as an organizer. They are both in paperback, easy to read, and full of great insights, most of which have stood the test of time.

Ezra Levin and others, Individual: The Guide -- This is the activist handbook that started the resistance to Trump and has now spread nationwide, with over 6,000 Indivisible chapters in every Congressional district. <https://www.indivisible.org/guide/>

Jonathan Smucker, Hegemony How-To: A Roadmap for Radicals

Sarah Jaffe, Necessary Trouble: Americans in Revolt

Becky Bond and Zack Exley, Rules for Revolutionaries: How Big Organizing Can Change Everything

L.A. Kauffman, Direct Action: Protest and the Reinvention of American Radicalism

Greg Jobin-Leeds, When We Fight We Win! – 21st Century Social Movements and the Activists That Are Transforming Our World

Kristin Szakos and Joe Szakos, We Make Change: Community Organizers Talk About What They Do And Why. You will enjoy this book, which has lots of great profiles of and stories about effective organizers working in different parts of the country, in different kinds of organizations, on different issues.

Robert Fisher, Let the People Decide: Neighborhood Organizing in America (2nd edition). This is the best overview of the history of community organizing. It describes various efforts and strategies to organize communities and neighborhoods in this century.

MoveOn.Org, 50 Ways to Love Your Country. This is MoveOn's guide to political activism and the many ways Americans can be effective citizens

Charlotte Ryan, Prime Time Activism. This book is a handbook for grassroots activists about dealing with the media.

Mark Warren, Dry Bones Rattling. This is case study of effective community organizing around a variety of issues in Texas. It is also an analysis of how community organizing relates to the persistent crisis of American democracy -- inequalities of power, participation, and policymaking.

Rinku Sen, Stir it Up: Lessons in Community Organizing and Advocacy and Makani Themba, Making Policy, Making Change: How Communities are Taking Law into Their Own Hands. These two books document grassroots organizing campaigns that focus on media and policy advocacy; the Themba book focuses on public health issues. She includes a chapter case study on the Community Coalition's organizing campaign to shut down liquor stores in South Los Angeles.

Joan Minieri and Paul Getsos. Tools for Radical Democracy. How to Organize for Power in your Community. This how-to manual includes: 1) In-depth analysis of how to launch and win a campaign; 2) Tools, worksheets and guidelines for training people to lead their own campaigns and organizations; 3) Insights for using technology effectively, building more powerful alliances, and engaging in the social justice movement.

Web Sites

You can use the internet to connect to the larger worlds of public policy, advocacy, and organizing. There are thousands of web sites that deal with social issues and thousands of advocacy organizations and political networks that have their own web sites. Here are several key sites with which you should be familiar. I encourage you to bookmark them so you can find them easily.

Community Organizing and Development (<http://comm-org.wisc.edu>) -- This site is a link with hundreds of groups involved in urban community development. If you want to find out what groups are working on different urban issues, this is the site. It also has many articles and reports on urban community development and community organizing.

Organizing Upgrade (www.organizingupgrade.com) is a website developed by former organizers to facilitate strategic thinking on how to link community organizing to broader social justice movements rooted in communities.

The Center for Neighborhood Technology (<http://www.cnt.org>), the National Housing Institute (www.nhi.org), Planners Network (<http://www.plannersnetwork.org>), and Next City (<https://nextcity.org>) focus on innovative research and programs that strengthen urban neighborhoods and metropolitan areas. Each site has links to many other resources.

Campus Activism (<http://www.campusactivism.org>) is a good source of information about organizing efforts on college campuses around different issues. Generation Progress (<http://genprogress.org>) is one of the most effective progressive student groups, with lots of resources and information on its website. The Workers' Rights Consortium (<http://www.workersrights.org>) is a human rights group that monitors sweatshop conditions around the world and works with United Students Against Sweatshops (<http://usas.org>) to help student groups that seek a "sweatshop-free" campus.

American Prospect (<http://www.prospect.org>), The Nation (<http://www.thenation.com>), and Yes! (<http://www.yesmagazine.org>) These are three of the most important magazines analyzing American politics from a progressive, grassroots perspective

Demos - A Network for Ideas and Action (<http://www.demos-usa.org/demos>); Center for Responsive Politics (<http://www.opensecrets.org>); Every Voice Center (<http://www.everyvoicecenter.org>); Good Jobs First (<http://www.goodjobsfirst.org>); Center on Budget and Policy Priorities (<http://www.cbpp.org>); California Budget and Policy Center (<http://calbudgetcenter.org>); PolicyLink (<http://www.policylink.org>), the Campaign for America's Future (<http://www.ourfuture.org>), and the Economic Policy Institute (<http://www.epi.org>) -- These think tanks all provide interesting policy ideas on such issues as tax policy, campaign finance, anti-poverty policy, economic development, citizen participation, housing and homelessness, voting rights, and others.

READINGS, FILMS, AND DISCUSSION TOPICS

The course will cover the following topics. Students should have reading (and viewing) assignments completed before the class discussion on the topic. We may make changes to the reading assignments in order to incorporate relevant and timely readings; please refer to the readings posted on the Moodle site. (Note: NYT=New York Times; LAT=Los Angeles Times)

In the early weeks of your internship you should read:

- Chapter 2 and Chapter 7 from the book The Successful Internship: Transformation and Empowerment in Experiential Learning by H. Frederick Sweitzer and Mary A. King (third edition, Thompson-Brooks/Cole Publishers, 2009). It is available on the course Moodle website.
