WHAT ARE SOME ALUMNI DOING NOW?

Diplomacy and World Affairs (DWA) is Occidental College’s nationally recognized international relations major. In addition to providing students with a firm foundation on various IR theories and issues, students are encouraged to draw in an interdisciplinary manner from a related major (among them politics, economics, film/documentary-making, critical theory, history, and religious studies). Students study foreign language and intern at agencies and arms of the United Nations through the William and Elizabeth Kahane United Nations Program.
