The study of History offers a broad diversity of courses and approaches covering every time period, and cultures from all over the globe. Students will become familiar with intellectual, social, political, comparative and oral history, and may select from a wide spectrum of courses including such geographical areas as Latin America, the Middle East, Asia, Africa, Europe, the United States, and such topical areas as Women's History and the History of Science and Medicine.

WHAT IS THE STUDY OF HISTORY?

WHAT ELSE CAN YOU DO WITH THIS MAJOR?

• Run for student government positions or intern at an agency.
• Interest in Law: attain paralegal training, work in law firms and volunteer with public advocacy groups.
• Work with public interest groups, political campaigns or community service projects.
• Interest in journalism: attain relevant experience in the campus newspaper or radio; summer/part-time work with local, commercial, TV, or radio station.
• Interest in teaching: become a tutor, camp counselor or church school teacher.
• Develop foreign language ability.
• Interest in restoration: obtain an advanced degree in historic preservation.
• Apply to become a Resident Advisor or Programming Assistant for the Interultural Community Center.
• Participate in cultural, social justice and/or political action clubs/organizations.
• Apply for independent study through the Richter Fellowship or study abroad.
• Develop presentation skills by applying to the Summer Research Program.