

VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Art and Art History Department

POSITION SUMMARY

The Art and Art History department at Occidental College invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor appointment to begin August 2021. The position is for three years. We welcome applications from candidates who demonstrate dedication to teaching excellence with a focus on the art, architecture and visual culture of the Mediterranean World (pre-1800), with a transcultural emphasis that spans Europe, Asia, and North Africa.

Occidental College is a 4-year, residential, private liberal arts College located in the Eagle Rock neighborhood of Northeast Los Angeles. The Mission of Occidental College is to provide a gifted and diverse group of students with a total educational experience of the highest quality - one that prepares them for leadership in an increasingly complex, interdependent and pluralistic world. The distinctive interdisciplinary and multicultural focus of the College's academic program seeks to foster both the fulfillment of individual aspirations and a deeply rooted commitment to the public good.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND GOALS

Teaching responsibilities will be six courses (3-3), including:

1. Introduction to Early European Art
2. Two sections of a Cultural Studies Program first-year writing seminar (topic of your choice)
3. Three additional courses in areas of the candidate's interest

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates must have a PhD in Art History, or related field

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Occidental College is committed to academic excellence in a diverse community and strongly encourages applications from candidates committed to the College's mission of equity and excellence.
