MELLON POST-MFA FELLOW/ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF STUDIO ART
THE REPRODUCIBLE IMAGE: PRINTMAKING, PHOTOGRAPHY AND DIGITAL IMAGEMAKING
Department of Art and Art History

POSITION SUMMARY

Occidental College invites applicants for a one-year Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship followed by a tenure-track Assistant Professor appointment in the Art and Art History Department. This search is part of Occidental’s new multi-year Mellon Faculty Diversity Initiative (MDFI), which is synergized with the College’s renewed commitment to equity & justice and an intensified effort to hire faculty whose work focuses on issues of race and/or social justice and whose background, expertise, and experiences will contribute to diversifying Oxy’s faculty. The successful candidate will join the first of three MFDI cohorts with a total of nine postdoctoral positions in the Arts and Humanities. As part of the MFDI program, the members of the cohorts will be provided enhanced mentoring, professional development, and a greatly reduced teaching load. The position will begin in August 2022.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND GOALS

Along with introductory printmaking and photography courses, the successful candidate will teach a mix of intermediate and advanced courses including the senior comprehensive in studio art. The teaching load during the first year of the post-MFA Mellon fellowship will be 1/1. During the second year the teaching load will be 2/2, when the position converts to a tenure-track assistant professor position in the Art and Art History Department. In the third year, the teaching load will be 3/2, which is the standard teaching load for all tenured or tenure-track faculty at Occidental College. They will also have the opportunity to design community-based learning initiatives that deepen the connection between Occidental College and the cultural institutions and diverse residents of the dynamic city of Los Angeles.

QUALIFICATIONS

We are seeking a specialist in the “Reproducible Image” with a focus on a combination of printmaking, photography and/or digital image making. Candidates should have:

1. An MFA in photography, printmaking or digital image making, or a related discipline. We embrace an expansive notion of interdisciplinarity in studio practices, particularly within a small liberal arts context.
2. Demonstrated engagement with African American visual culture and/or the African diaspora; or Asian American visual culture and/or Asian diaspora; or Chicana/o / Latinx visual culture and/or the Latinx diaspora; or Native/Indigenous visual culture and/or the arts of the Native/Indigenous diaspora.
3. Record of potential for excellent creative work, exhibitions, research and/or publications.
4. Demonstrated commitment to teaching studio arts within a liberal arts, undergraduate College context.

REV. 10/2021
APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Please submit (1) a cover letter detailing your interest in teaching art practices in a liberal arts college environment; (2) curriculum vitae; (3) creative practice or research statement; (4) a statement of teaching philosophy that includes a discussion of your demonstrated commitment to, past evidence of, and future plans for creating equitable opportunities for learning and mentoring, especially for underrepresented students; (5) 20 samples of art or creative work.

Semi-Finalist candidates will be asked to submit a sample syllabus in their area(s) of expertise. Finalist candidates will be asked to submit three confidential letters of reference by January 15, 2022.

Submit initial application materials to ReproducibleImagesearch@oxy.edu.

Review of applications will begin on December 15, 2021.
