PART-TIME VIOLIN INSTRUCTOR

Music Department

POSITION SUMMARY AND QUALIFICATIONS

The Music Department seeks to hire a part-time Violin Instructor to teach half-hour- and hour-long lessons to undergraduate violin students, from beginning to advanced.

We are looking for an inspiring and knowledgeable pedagogue equipped with the following: a broad knowledge of violin repertoire; a Masters of Music in Violin performance, or Bachelor of Arts or Music with commensurate experience; a willingness to work with departmental colleagues and an understanding of teaching music at a liberal arts college. In addition to teaching 12 lessons each semester, this person will be expected to prepare students for and adjudicate string juries at the end of each semester, as well as work with their students who are Music majors (as well as with their academic advisors) on the development and preparation of junior and senior recital programs. There will also be opportunities to coach chamber music and lead orchestral sectional as necessary. We also offer facilities and support for solo and chamber music recitals in collaboration with our faculty and guest artists for additional compensation.
