PART-TIME PIANO INSTRUCTOR
DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

POSITION SUMMARY

The Music Department seeks to hire a part-time Piano Instructor to teach half-hour and hour-long lessons to undergraduate Piano students, from beginning to advanced. We are looking for an inspiring and knowledgeable pedagogue equipped with the following: a broad knowledge of classical piano repertoire; a minimum of a Masters of Music in piano performance; a willingness to collaborate with departmental colleagues; and an understanding of teaching music at a liberal arts college.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND GOALS

In addition to teaching 12 lessons each semester, this person will be expected to prepare students for and adjudicate piano juries at the end of each semester, and work with their students who are Music majors (as well as with their academic advisors) on the development and preparation of junior and senior recital programs. There may be opportunities to coach chamber music ensembles and perform on faculty concerts. The position will begin in January 2022, at the start of the spring semester.
