SENIOR FINANCIAL AID COUNSELOR
Office of Financial Aid

POSITION SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director of Financial Aid, the Financial Aid counselor will assist with the daily operation of the Financial Aid Office as well as counsel students, families, and the community about the College’s financial aid programs. The Financial Aid counselor must have thorough knowledge of institutional, federal and state financial aid programs, including regulations, law and policy enabling them to provide financial aid information to students, parents and the community and to participate in the daily operations of the financial aid office. In addition to managing a caseload of students, the financial aid counselor will be responsible for managing one or more particular responsibilities.

Occidental maintains a longstanding commitment to access and equity, and as a result, our current student body includes 46% domestic students of color and 16% first-generation college students. Our financial aid policies meet 100% of the demonstrated financial need of our students. The successful candidate will excel at working in a community that is broadly diverse with regard to race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, gender, nationality, sexual orientation, and religion.
