2010-11 Spring Study Abroad Evaluation
Rabat, Morocco

Page 1, Q3. Major
1 critical theory and social justice May 14, 2011 1:46 AM
2 Economics May 13, 2011 11:55 PM

Page 1, Q4. Program (City, Country, Program Sponsor)
1 Rabat, Morocco, SIT (Multiculturalism and Human Rights) May 14, 2011 1:46 AM
2 Rabat, Morocco, SIT May 13, 2011 11:55 PM

Page 2, Q2. To what extent did you succeed in accomplishing your goals? Why did you succeed or not?
1 I made progress in all of my goals. It required struggling with understanding a new culture, but I put my heart into it and had patience to persevere through any hardship. May 13, 2011 11:56 PM

Page 3, Q1. How many students were on the program?
1 38 May 14, 2011 12:08 AM

Page 3, Q2. How many Oxy students?
1 2 May 14, 2011 12:08 AM
Page 3, Q2. How many Oxy students?

Page 3, Q3. Please comment on the goals and academic abilities of your fellow students. How were they similar/dissimilar to yours?

1. I was the only Econ major and the only one really interested in mathematics, but it had no effect on me.
May 14, 2011 12:08 AM

Page 3, Q4. Describe the background of your classmates, e.g., all Americans, all Oxy students.

1. All American students from various academic background such as political science, psychology and physics.
May 14, 2011 12:08 AM

Page 3, Q5. Describe your housing situation.

1. Homestay family with 3 host brothers. Had my own private room in my house.
May 14, 2011 12:08 AM

Page 4, Q3. List any courses and/or professors you would recommend.

1. Fatema Zahra is by far the best Arabic Teacher. Farah had one of the most interesting seminar classes.
May 14, 2011 12:09 AM

Page 6, Q2. Did you contact Oxy alum living abroad as part of the Alumni and Study Abroad Partnership Program (ASAPP)?

1. No
May 14, 2011 12:15 AM

Page 6, Q3. What strategies can you recommend for meeting locals and making friends?

1. Be open to a new culture. It takes time to meet locals who are genuinely nice and are willing to be true friends.
May 14, 2011 12:15 AM
Page 6, Q4. Were there aspects of the culture with which you were not comfortable?

| 1 | Cat calling was quite ridiculous. Islam is a big part of the culture and I was a little bit uncomfortable having it forced down my throat. | May 14, 2011 12:15 AM |

Page 7, Q1. How much did you spend on airfare to/from your program?

| 1 | 1500 | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |

Page 7, Q3. What was the approximate exchange rate during your stay?

| 1 | 8 dh--> 1 dollar | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |

Page 7, Q4. How much did you spend on books and supplies?

| 1 | 0 | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |

Page 7, Q5. How much did you spend on local transportation to/from daily class?

| 1 | 0 | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |

Page 7, Q7. Describe how you took your meals, e.g., groceries prepared in kitchen, dining hall etc., and how much you spent on meals weekly, not including, bars, clubs etc.?

| 1 | Mostly ate with my homestay family. I ate out twice which amounted to $25 or so. | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |

Page 7, Q9. How do you recommend taking your money abroad? Did you open a local bank account?

| 1 | ATM is perfectly fine here. | May 14, 2011 12:18 AM |
Page 8, Q2. What did you take that you found most useful?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Waterproof pants.</th>
<th>May 14, 2011 12:19 AM</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Page 8, Q6. Did you have access to computers and/or email? If so, please describe what type of computer services you used. Did you use your Oxy email?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Brought my own computer, although there are plenty of cyber cafes. I used oxy email although GMAIL was particularly slow here.</th>
<th>May 14, 2011 12:19 AM</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Page 10, Q3. Describe the overall strengths and weaknesses of the program.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Some issues with receiving feedback on papers and such.</th>
<th>May 14, 2011 12:33 AM</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>