Music Department Goals for Student Learning

- Music students will be able to apply critical and analytic skills to the study of music in theoretical, historical, and cultural contexts
- Music students will engage the community at large as scholars, performers, composers, and teachers
- Music students will demonstrate proficiency in aural and keyboard musicianship
- Music students will be proficient in performance on an instrument, voice, or electronic media