Course Overview: What is this course about?

This course is an introduction into issues at the intersection of “urban” and “environment.” It is for those interested in learning more about these concepts and the path forward towards creating more just and equitable environments and cities. This course introduces students to the political, economic, and social aspects of the environment with a focus on the role of government, policy, and social change. This course explores the intersection of race, poverty, and inequity in the environment and introduces how issues of race, class, gender, and workers’ rights interact with the natural and built environments.

The course is designed for students considering a UEP major and provides foundational concepts to be explored in more depth through other UEP courses. The course is also intended for non- UEP majors who are interested in the topics and examining the urban and environmental linkages to other disciplines. The course is an opportunity for students to interact with others interested in asking and answering complex questions about our cities, the natural world, and our global context and exploring solutions for critical urban and environmental challenges.

Classroom Community

This course is intended to provoke discussion and new understandings of the urban environment we live in. Toward this end, the course will grapple with discussions about inequity, power, race, class, and gender. We expect our class times and discussions to be a productive space for open, honest, and thoughtful discussion that recognizes and respects differences and acknowledges the broad range of knowledge we bring to the classroom and discussion. Please remember that our focus in this course is the issues, texts, course materials and presentations themselves, and not the personalities, identities, or opinions of other participants in the discussion.

The professors and students share the responsibility of creating the space and stimulating enthusiasm for learning. The professors are responsible for structuring and facilitating a space for learning and achieving course goals. Students are responsible for attending and participating in class, completing assignments in a timely manner, being prepared to discuss readings and material in class, and contributing to a robust learning environment and community. With this goal, students are also responsible for engaging in respectful, open, and thoughtful discussion with each other and the professors.

Course Objectives

The goals of this course are to examine the idea of “environment” and how it relates to the urban context. Through readings, films, class exercises, and discussions, students will:

- Gain insights and critical thinking about cities, urban and environmental issues as well as understand the role of policy, organizing, and social movements in addressing these conditions.
- Develop analytic skills to make connections between the economic, political, social, and spatial aspects of cities and the environment, particularly related to jobs, health, economic development, housing, transportation and the built environment, neighborhood and regional planning, and community development.
- Progress in active reading, critical thinking, analytical writing, and discussion skills through the synthesis of sources, including lectures, videos, and discussion in class and with peers.

Course Activities Schedule:

Readings and any prerecorded lectures must be completed by class meeting times:

These will be posted on our Moodle class page. Due to intellectual property and copyright concerns, any lecture videos can only be streamed and not downloaded. Please complete readings and watch any videotaped lectures for the day they are assigned. Readings will largely follow the syllabus but are subject to some changes.

Please pay attention to the Moodle site for any changes to the schedule and/or the readings.

Moodle Reading Discussions:

Before each class meeting, students will write a short post that includes a) an important theme or idea from one of the readings and b) a question based on that same reading. These short posts, they need not be any longer than 50 words, will help the class reflect on readings in preparation for discussing them in class. You may also comment on other student's responses. Posts are due by 9am on Tuesday and Thursday mornings before class.

Joint Classes:

Over the semester, we will hold joint classes where both sections of 101 will meet together because of guest speakers or scheduling issues.

Important Note:

As the semester unfolds, additional joint sessions may get scheduled. Syllabus will be updated on Moodle.

Course Requirements

- Participation (25% of grade): You are expected to do all of the course readings and videos for the date they are assigned and keep up with readings and assignments. This is a reading intensive seminar, discussions and online forum discussions are key. As such attendance and preparation is required. Your participation in class will also be evaluated based on your ability to contribute productively to the discussions and class exercises. Be mindful of your own contribution but also the overall discussion dynamic. Listen attentively to others, recognize when to “step up” and “step back” so that all class members can participate meaningfully. Focus on quality over quantity when participating. Your participation grade consists of the following subcategories:
 - Large class discussions (10%): Engagement in class discussions and full class synchronous meetings
 - Small group discussions (10%): Small group discussions will be conducted during class and guided by specific prompts. Groups will track discussion via a shared google document. We will discuss optimal formats for small group discussion, such as moving small groups outside or conducting these in some class sessions over zoom
 - Moodle Reading Forums (5%) Please see above for Moodle forum details. Remember, posts will be due before each meeting of the class unless noted otherwise.
- Your Local Neighborhood Observation Paper (15% of grade): There is one paper assignment based on your observation walk in your community. Paper prompts will be passed out in class. Paper is to be posted on Moodle by midnight Tuesday, February 23

- Midterm Exam (20% of grade): Midterm will be in class on Thursday, March 9. More details will be discussed in class closer to the date.
- Film Reflection Paper (10% of grade): We will be watching the film Manzanar Diverted, directed by Ann Kaneko. The film is available online through the library. In response to the film, you will discuss prompts that will be provided with members of a small group. You will record the small group discussion using Zoom and post the recording to Moodle by 11:59 p.m. Thursday, April 6.
- Field Trip and Reflection Paper (5%): The class will take a field trip on Thursday, April 13. A short reflection assignment will be due on April 20.
- Event / Speaker Attendance and Reflection (5%): Attend a public event or a presentation given by a public speaker broadly relevant to the course, on campus or off-campus and write a 1–2-page reflection for each about the event, integrating topic ideas and/or sources from class. Due by Tuesday May 2 by midnight. Turning in these reflections early is encouraged. Attending online events is permitted, but check with the instructor first.
- Final Paper (20% of grade): Final papers are due during Finals week (specific date TBD). You must upload your paper to Moodle. Papers should be between 5-7 pages, double-spaced, 12-point font. A paper prompt and grading rubric will be passed out and discussed in class

Class Assignments

Summary of Assignments and Due Dates

Assignment	% of Grade	Due Date
Moodle Readings Forums	5%	9am before each class meeting
Neighborhood Observation Paper	15%	Thursday, February 23 th by midnight on Moodle
Field Trip/Reflection	10%	Reflection exercise due Thursday, April 20. Details provided in a separate prompt.
Midterm Exam	20%	Thursday March 9, details provided in class
Film Response Paper	10%	Post to Moodle by midnight, on Thursday April 6
Event / Speaker Reflection	5%	May 2 by midnight on Moodle
Final Paper	20%	Finals week. Specific Date TBD. Details provided in separate prompt. Post to Moodle

Late Assignment Policy

Timely submission of assignments is important for UEP 101. With the increased amount of digital communication and responsibilities for staff and faculty this semester, timely submission is even more crucial. Late assignments derail faculty's ability to provide timely grading and necessary comments to improve your work.

Late assignments should still be posted to Moodle. They will be marked down one letter grade (e.g., from B to B-) for each 24-period that they are late.

We understand that things come up and especially this semester. If there is a health or medical issue, family emergency, or a similar situation, I recognize that these types of life issues can sometimes arise unexpectedly. If you are unable to turn the assignment in on time or attend a synchronous class, please communicate to me and we will work out a plan. Similarly, if you must miss a synchronous class due to reasons of faith or conscience, please communicate with me as early in the semester as possible.

Class Schedule, Readings, and Assignments

Readings and course materials should be completed for discussion for classes listed below. Please note that readings may change; check Moodle for the latest reading assignments. Although the reading links have been tested; some links may no longer work. When this happens, look up the title of the document. Often times there are "snapshots" of the sites still accessible. If you cannot find it, please ask your instructor or email schico@oxy.edu

Also, review this video instruction to allow you to use Google Scholar and directly access Oxy Library holdings including online journal databases such as ProQuest. This will allow you to get behind paywalls and access full texts of articles. Once you click on the video link, use the password oxycdla (caps sensitive). Follow the instructions. This significantly increases access to journal articles online in all fields, including full text pdfs for download.

Course and College Policies

Land Acknowledgement

Occidental College occupies the traditional territory and homelands of the Tongva people. Please click through to read more about the Gabrielino-Tongva tribe and about the practice of land acknowledgement.

Credit Hour Policy

UEP 101 is a 4-unit course. On average, you should expect to spend at least twelve (12) hours a week (including in-class time) on this course.

Core Program Requirements

UEP 101 satisfies a CPUD requirement.

COVID-Specific Policy on Masks

Masks remain one of our strongest mitigation tools to stop the spread of COVID and other respiratory illnesses that are circulating at high levels, including flu and RSV (respiratory syncytial virus). Students are expected to wear masks inside the classroom; exceptions may be made for speakers.

Attendance and Participation

Participation is expected as the work that we do in class is critical to your understanding of the material and you will work together with your peers to consider the readings and may be able to provide feedback to peers.

Discussion and small group activities supply the opportunity for you to demonstrate your learning and put it into practice and allow your instructor the opportunity to assess whether you are grasping the relevant concepts. This is true for in-person, online, or hybrid modes of instruction.

However, if there is a medical issue or family emergency, please let us know. We recognize that other life issues can sometimes arise unexpectedly. If you must miss class due to an official Oxy event, or due to reason of faith or conscience, please let us know as early in the semester as possible.

Your health and well-being, and that of our community, are essential. If you are feeling any symptoms of illness, even if they are slight, please refrain from attending class until explicitly cleared by Emmons. Similarly, if you have a known exposure to someone who has tested positive for COVID-19, please do not return to class until Emmons confirms that you are cleared to participate in your usual activities.

Student Support Services

The College provides a wide range of Student Academic Support Resources.

- If you'd like to take advantage of the College's Academic Coaching resource, which offers one-on-one sessions focused on supporting your time management skills, online learning strategies, and other study skills, you may schedule an academic coaching meeting by sending an email to academiccoaching@oxy.edu. Share what you'd like to work on, and an academic coach will schedule an appointment with you within a few days.
- The Center for Digital Liberal Arts (CDLA) offers library research consultations and discipline-specific peer tutoring for coursework and language learning. We also offer peer-to-peer support for learning technologies from Moodle and Zoom to Adobe, app making, and ProTools.
- The Writing Center offers opportunities to work on all forms of writing for any class or other writing tasks such as personal statements, senior comprehensives, etc. We offer peer-to-peer consultations with knowledgeable Writing Advisers and sessions with Faculty Writing Specialists. See the Writing Center website for more information about hours and how students can sign up for appointments. Please contact the Writing Programs-Center Director, Julie Prebel (jprebel@oxy.edu; x1307) for more information on how the Center can work with you.
- Emmons Wellness Center also provides important support services and can help you address issues of stress, medical and mental health, and overall well-being. For more information, see their website at <https://www.oxy.edu/student-life/resources-support/emmons-wellness-center> *Emmons can also help you locate resources out-of-state.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with the Student Handbook, in particular the section on Academic Ethics. (Link to the policy in the Student Handbook). Whenever outside sources are used, they must be properly credited.

Statement of the Shared Academic Integrity Commitment

Academic Integrity is a shared community value. It is built around trust and respect between members of the Occidental Community and embodies a commitment to honesty and integrity in every aspect of one's academic life.

All members of the Occidental community are committed to uphold the highest degree of academic integrity. Unless stipulated otherwise, the academic work done for all assignments is expected to be the student's own, and students give proper credit to the ideas and work of others.

Signing the Academic Integrity Commitment at matriculation and at the beginning of every semester represents a student's affirmation to uphold the shared values of honesty and integrity. When signing the Integrity Commitment associated with work in a course, students are affirming that they have not cheated, plagiarized, fabricated, or falsified information; nor assisted others in these actions.

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism consists of any form of passing off, or attempting to pass off, the knowledge or work of others as your own. It is a form of cheating. Examples of plagiarism include: unattributed quotations from a book, magazine, or article; copying from the notes or essays of others; the submission of work actually written or dictated by others; and unattributed use of other people's ideas. Remember, plagiarism includes information from books, newspapers, journals, and the Internet. Plagiarism is grounds for failing the course and possible expulsion from the college.

Students should consult Occidental's student handbook for information on academic misconduct policy at the college: <https://www.oxy.edu/student-handbook/academic-ethics/academic-misconduct>

Title IX statement, and statement of role of faculty member as a mandatory reporter (Link to Title IX)

In the event you choose to write or speak about having experienced sexual or interpersonal violence, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual exploitation or any other form of sexual harassment, as designated Responsible Employees, professors must notify the Title IX Office. They will contact you to let you know about accommodations and support services at Oxy and reporting options both on and off-campus.

If you do not want the Title IX Office notified, instead of disclosing this information to your instructor, either through conversation or a class assignment, you can speak confidentially with the following people on campus:

- Survivor Advocate, Project SAFE (survivoradvocate@oxy.edu)
- Emmons Counseling (For appointments, call: 323-259-2657)
- Rev. Dr. Susan Young, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life (young@oxy.edu)

The sexual misconduct policy, along with additional resources, can be found at: <http://www.oxy.edu/sexual-respect-title-ix/policies-procedures>. If you would like to contact the Title IX Office directly, you can email Title IX Coordinator Alexandra Fulcher at afulcher@oxy.edu or call 323-259-1338.

Special Accommodations/Learning Differences

No matter the mode of course instruction, approved academic accommodations remain in effect. Students with documented disabilities and learning differences who are registered with Disability Services are required to present their accommodation letter to the instructor at the beginning of each semester, or as soon as possible thereafter. Any student who has, or thinks they may have, a physical, learning, or psychological disability may contact Disability Services at accessibility@oxy.edu to learn about available services and support. More information is available at <http://www.oxy.edu/disability-services>.

Accommodations for Reasons of Faith and Conscience

Consistent with Occidental College's commitment to creating an academic community that is respectful of and welcoming to persons of differing backgrounds, we believe that students should be excused from class for reasons of faith and conscience without academic consequence. While it is not feasible to schedule coursework around all days of conviction for a class as a whole, faculty will honor requests from individual students to reschedule coursework, to be absent from classes that conflict with the identified days. Information about this process is available on the ORSL website: <https://www.oxy.edu/office-religious-spiritual-life>

Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation

We strive to foster an inclusive classroom environment. Consistent with College policy on discrimination, harassment, and retaliation, we seek to maintain an environment of mutual respect among all members of our community. Please reach out to us with any concerns. Students with documented disabilities and learning differences who are registered with Disability Services are required to present their accommodation letter to the instructor at the beginning of each semester, or as soon as possible thereafter. Any student who has, or thinks they may have, a physical, learning, or psychological disability may contact Disability Services at accessibility@oxy.edu to learn about available services and support. Recordings

Online classes may be recorded by your instructor. This means that the audio-visual and chat portions of each class may be recorded and then stored on the College's servers.

Recordings will be made available through Moodle (or another secure platform), but only for the express and sole use of those registered in the course. The recorded material will be removed at the end of the semester. No other recording of classroom instruction is permitted. The sharing, altering, or distorting of any audio-visual capture of a class session is not permitted. All content contained in the records shall be subject to the College's Policy on Intellectual Property.

Equity & Justice in an Inclusive Learning Environment

This classroom is a place where you will be treated with respect, and I welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, ethnicities, gender identities and expressions, national origins, political affiliations, religious affiliations, sexual orientations, abilities, and other visible and nonvisible identities. The wide array of perspectives that each of us contributes to this class is a resource that will strengthen and enhance our intellectual community. All members of this class are expected to co-create and engage in a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of the class. In this context, we may speak as individuals or we may choose to represent ourselves as a member of a group. You need not represent any group, only yourself, though you may choose to represent a group, if you wish. Additionally, part of equity & justice work is to dismantle barriers to success for all people, particularly those who belong to groups that have been marginalized and minoritized. If there are aspects of the design, instruction, and/or experiences within this course that result in barriers to your success or accurate assessment of achievement, or if there are ways we can improve the effectiveness of this course for you personally or for other students or student groups, please let me know. Your suggestions about how to improve the value of justice, equity, inclusion, and diversity in this course are encouraged and appreciated.

Grading Rubric

The goal of the class is for you to become thoughtful, curious, and critical thinkers about the urban environment. The perspectives and skills you gain in the class in the long-term matter more than any grade you receive. Grades however, are important indicators of your grasp of the course material. The following is a rubric for understanding what it takes to do well in the class. Assignment-specific rubrics will be provided with assignments.

A: 93 – 100, A-: 90-92, B+: 88-90, B:83-87, B-: 80-82, C+:78-80, C: 73-77, C-: 70-72, D+: 68-70, D: 63-67, D-: 60-62; F: <60

Grade A:

Sophisticated and thoughtful reflections on course material; excellent depth of critical analysis; accurate and creative interpretation of course readings; well-constructed arguments; cogent, clear, and persuasive speaking and writing.

Participation—student participates frequently; demonstrates thorough preparation and a firm grounding in the course material; demonstrates an ability to analyze readings and to clearly articulate her analysis, an ability to understand the subtle logic of a range of positions, and an ability to synthesize course material over the semester. Student goes well beyond the requirements of the course.

Grade B:

Good to Very Good reflection, analysis, and engagement with course ideas; accurate and creative interpretation of course readings; well-constructed arguments; solid speaking and writing skills

Participation—student participates regularly; demonstrates a good deal of preparation and a good handle on the course material; frequently offers interesting insights and intriguing interpretations of our sources; demonstrates an ability to connect readings/ideas across the semester student meets requirements of the course competently.

Grade C:

Satisfactory; student can summarize course material and has made fair attempts at analysis; analysis and critique may require further development or coherence, thinking may still be a bit unnuanced, and/or ideas may be difficult to understand due to issues of speaking and writing

Participation—student participates regularly; demonstrates a good deal of preparation and a good handle on the course material; s/he can adequately summarize readings, but might not offer well- formed analysis and critique; every so often offers interesting insights.

Grade D:

Unsatisfactory; student reads course material but does not understand it at a satisfactory level; student completes course assignments but they do not evidence adequate understanding, analysis, or preparation.

Student often misses assignments and class discussions.

Participation—student participates occasionally, though s/he demonstrates inadequate preparation, makes comments that are not based in readings, and/or offers ideas with scant support. Student made some effort to meet minimum requirements.

Grade F:

Student fails to meet the minimum requirements of the course Participation—little to no participation
