Just a sweet word
The table is prepared for you

Wishing you godspeed, glory
There will be mountains you won't move
Still, I'll always be there for you
How I do
I let go of my claim on you, it's a free world
You look down on where you came from sometimes
But you'll have this place to call home, always

This love will keep us through blinding of the eyes
Silence in the ears, darkness of the mind (until it's time)
This love will keep us through blinding of the eyes (oh)
Silence in the ears, darkness of the mind (oh)
This love will keep us through blinding of the eyes (oh, until it's time we die)
Silence in the ears, darkness of the mind

Oh, oh
I will always love you
Godspeed

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

HONORIS CAUSA

TIMOTHY B. SANFORD '75

As the artistic director of Playwrights Horizons for 25 years, Tim Sanford '75 made the New York nonprofit one of the leading incubators of modern American theater. "Playwrights Horizons has been quite simply the most important crucible for contemporary playwriting in America," writes Los Angeles Times theater critic Charles McNulty. "It's impossible to imagine off-Broadway in the last quarter century without [his] contributions."

During Sanford's tenure as artistic director, productions staged by the off-Broadway theater devoted exclusively to the support and development of contemporary American playwrights, composers, and lyricists won four Pulitzer Prizes, 17 Obies, three Tonys, and four New York Drama Critics Awards, among others. Under his leadership, Playwrights Horizons received a special 2008 Drama Desk Award for "ongoing support to generations of theater artists and undiminished commitment to producing new work."

His career at Playwrights Horizons began in 1984, when he joined the nonprofit as an intern. Promoted to literary manager and then associate artistic director, Sanford was named artistic director in 1996. He retired in 2021. Sanford is the recipient of an Obie Lifetime Achievement Award, a Drama Desk Award, the New York Governor's Arts Award, and was named the first Miss Lilly winner in 2011, an annual award presented to a male theater professional for their advocacy on behalf of women theater artists. He is a past president of the Literary Managers and Dramaturgs of the Americas, a contributor to Dramaturgy in American Theater, and a board member of Theater Communications Group.

A theater major at Occidental, Sanford went on to earn a doctorate in theater at Stanford University. "To me, the Oxy theater program was the model for undergraduate and even graduate school programs," he said in a 2007 interview. "At Oxy I did everything. I wrote a play and put it on, directed four or five plays, and acted constantly—it was a very rich experience."

ISABEL A. WILKERSON

Pulitzer Prize winner and National Humanities Medal recipient Isabel Wilkerson is the author of the critically acclaimed New York Times bestsellers Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents (2020) and The Warmth of Other Suns: The Epic Story of America's Great Migration (2010).

The Warmth of Other Suns tells the true story of three people among the 6 million who made the decision of their lives during the Great Migration, a watershed in American history. Wilkerson spent 15 years working on the book, interviewing more than 1,200 people. Among its many accolades, The Warmth of Other Suns won the National Book Critics Circle Award, the Heartland Prize for Nonfiction, the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award for nonfiction, the Lynton History Prize from Harvard and Columbia universities, and the Stephen Ambrose Oral History Prize. In 2012, The New York Times Magazine named the book to its list of the best nonfiction books of all time, and in 2019, Time named it one of the "10 Best Nonfiction Books" of the decade.

Wilkerson's most recent book, Caste, examines the unspoken caste system that has shaped America and shows how a hierarchy of social divisions still defines our lives today. Named to Time's "100 Must-Read Books of 2020," Caste was hailed as "an instant American classic" by Dwight Garner of The New York Times and was selected by Oprah Winfrey for her monthly Book Club.

Wilkerson won the Pulitzer Prize for her work as Chicago bureau chief of The New York Times in 1994, making her the first Black woman in the history of American journalism to win a Pulitzer Prize and the first African-American to win for individual reporting. In presenting Wilkerson with the 2015 National Humanities Medal, the National Endowment for the Humanities honored her "for championing the stories of an unsung history. Her masterful combination of intimate human narratives with broader societal trends allows us to measure the epic migration of a people by its vast impact on our Nation and on each individual life."
