WHAT’S NEW AT OXY

OBAMA SCHOLARS

Oxy welcomed its first two Obama Scholars to campus this fall. The Barack Obama Scholars program honors the legacy of Occidental’s most famous student. This scholarship program provides a comprehensive experience for exceptional students of all backgrounds who seek the opportunity to create lasting and meaningful change.

NEW MAJORS

This fall, Oxy launched a black studies major. The new program is a transnational and interdisciplinary study of the history, scholarship, arts and culture of people of the African diaspora. Oxy’s computer science major, now in its second full year, has seen incredible interest and earned accolades from the Los Angeles Times.

HIGHLIGHTS

1. This summer, more than 130 Oxy students participated in our Undergraduate Research Center’s summer research program, supported by 62 faculty mentors across academic departments.

2. Construction has begun on new athletic facilities at Oxy. A state-of-the-art pool with a diving well, in addition to new tennis courts, will open to students next year.

3. This fall, 20 students are participating in our one-of-a-kind program, Campaign Semester—earning a full semester of college credit while volunteering full time in a congressional or gubernatorial campaign.

4. For more than a decade, Oxy has been a top producer of student Fulbright Scholars among liberal arts colleges. This year’s nine recipients are among the 108 Oxy students and alumni who have won Fulbrights since 2003.

5. Three Oxy students and alumni were awarded National Science Foundation Graduate Research fellowships. This is the second consecutive year an Oxy undergraduate has been awarded this fellowship, which is usually awarded to graduate students.

FINANCIAL AID

100% OF DEMONSTRATED NEED IS MET

For all students applying for need-based aid, Occidental requires both the FAFSA and the CSS Profile. For the 2018-19 year, financial aid applications must be submitted by the appropriate application deadline.
